Religion Communicators Council
An Interfaith Association of Religion Communicators since 1929

Wilbur Awards

2005 Wilbur Award Winners
for work completed in 2004

Newspaper columns, The Kansas City Star, Kansas City, Missouri, Bill Tammeus, columnist.

Newspaper religion sections: The Dallas Morning News, Dallas, Texas, Bruce Tomaso, religion editor.

Photography: The Des Moines Register, Des Moines, Iowa, “Young men answer call to be priests,” David Peterson, photographer.

Television drama: Jack & Bobby “A Man of Faith,” Berlanti/Liddell and Shoe Money Productions in association with Warner Brothers Television Production, Burbank, California.

Wilbur Awards

Television news, local: “Before They Ask: Sex Education in the Church,” WTSP-TV, St. Petersburg, Florida, Dave Bohman, reporter, Theresa Moore, producer, and Tim Kania, videojournalist.

Television documentary, national: Seeking Salvation, VisionTV, Toronto, Ontario, Canada, Travesty Productions, Phillip Daniels, director and producer, S. Wyeth Clarkson, producer, and Lawrence Hill, writer.

Television documentary, local: The Dead Sea Scrolls, KTRK TV, Houston, Texas, Shara Fryer, executive producer, writer and host, John Mubarak, video editor and producer, and Ben Lutman, photographer.

Film documentary: America’s Heart & Soul, Blacklight Films, Studio City, California and Walt Disney Pictures, produced and directed by Louis Schwartzberg, Vincent Ueber, associate producer.

Film comedy: “Raising Helen,” Beacon Pictures and Touchstone Pictures, directed by Garry Marshall, produced by Ashok Amritraj, starring Kate Hudson, John Corbett, and Joan Cusack.